After a lengthy discussion among the voting delegates, it was agreed that in order to enhance its clarity, a few amendments should be made to the wordings of the original proposed Clause 7a. (ii), and that both Clauses 7a.(i) and 7a.(ii) shall now read as follows:

7. MEETINGS

7a. (i) The District Committee shall meet at least twice a year unless any District within any country, because of its geographical and climatic conditions, finds it more practical to hold one yearly meeting: one meeting shall be the Annual General Meeting.

7a. (ii) That the District Chairman and the District Committee may, in their reasonable opinion, adopt alternative arrangements with regard to the conduct of meetings. Such alternative arrangements may include video conferencing, other electronic means and/or such other arrangements deemed appropriate by the District Chairman and the District Committee. In determining the alternative arrangements, the District Chairman and the District Committee shall take into consideration and comply with any applicable laws, regulations, rules, measures or guidelines enforced or issued by the Governments or local authorities of the said District from time to time.

And that Clause 8a. on VOTING be amended to read as:

8a. Voting at elections shall be by ballot, including proxy votes.

The above-mentioned amended proposals were then put to the vote.
